

Brewer Anheuser-Busch InBev \(AB InBev\), which owns a brewery business in Mysuru, has indicated a desire to expand by investing an additional 500 crore.

AB InBev Chairman and CEO John Crop met with Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Monday and expressed a desire to invest more in the State, according to a statement from the CMO. It stated that AB InBev is a global American-Belgian beverage and brewing firm with headquarters in Leuven, Belgium. This corporation established a brewery unit in Mysuru and sought to expand by investing a further 500 crore.

It went on to say that the State was praised for having the greatest excise policy and for having a good, business-friendly environment. The company plans to invest more money in Karnataka.
