

AdaniAgri Logistics Ltd said that it has been awarded a contract by the state-owned FCI to construct four silo complexes in Bihar and Uttar Pradesh.

Following a competitive bidding process, the Food Corporation of India (FCI) has awarded a Letter of Award (LoA) to AdaniAgri Logistics Ltd, a fully owned subsidiary of Adani Logistics Ltd, to construct silo complexes at various locations throughout the nation.

Modern silo complexes will be built and run by AdaniAgri Logistics at four locations: Kanpur, Gonda, Sandila, and Katihar in Bihar, with a combined silo storage capacity of 3.5 lakh tonnes.

Silo complexes, which are mechanised and automated units equipped with temperature and humidity controls, are built to handle, store and preserve food grains. The handling process, from procurement to transportation, is in bulk form catered through containerised movement.
