

Arunachal Pradesh's first airport Hollongi is expected to be ready by August 2022 ahead of the scheduled completion date, Chief Minister Pema Khandu has said.

He said after visiting the construction site of the ambitious Greenfield Airport at Hollongi along the boundary with Assam and took stock of the work progress on ground.

The airport is supposed to be completed by November 22 next year as per the original agreement with construction agencies. However, the Union and State government authorities are pushing for its commissioning by August next year.
