

With the beverage sector posting blistering sales this summer, bottlers like PepsiCo and Coca-Cola are spending huge money to expand manufacturing facilities in the nation. Varun Beverages, a major PepsiCo bottler, is to invest approximately 1,200 crore to increase its manufacturing capacity in India by the end of the year. The bottlers of Coca-Cola India are now investing close to $1 billion to increase beverage capacity by 30-40% until March 2023. At an earnings' call, Ravi Jaipuria, Chairman, Varun Beverages Ltd, said the company is set to invest about ₹1,200 crore till 2023-end. This will be invested in setting up two large greenfield plants in Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan, besides enhancing capacity at its newly-constructed Bihar plant. "This will help increase our total capacity by 30 per cent in India," he added.

Site Moved. Visit our New Website

We have moved this news site from this URL to <https://www.newprojectstracker.com/capex-news> .

Visit this site for regular updates

Buy Latest Research Reports

