

For over 160 years, the EIRICH Group has been a global leader in mixing and processing knowledge, with Maschinenfabrik Gustav Eirich as its strategic heart in Hardheim. Eirich is continuing its global expansion strategy with a proposed new facility in India.

On 11 April 2022, the groundbreaking ceremony for the development of the brand new plant web site of Eirich India's subsidiary took place on the Chakan industrial space in Pune. Eirich equipment and gear are expected to be manufactured as early as Q1 2023.

Stephan Eirich is the sixth technology to lead the family business forward, and he sees the expansion of the Eirich Group's Indian activities as a critical strategic step.
