

Garuda Aerospace, a drone manufacturer and drone-as-a-service provider, will send roughly 4,000 drones to African countries and is also the lowest bidder in RITES Ltd's LiDAR-based survey tender, according to a top business executive.

He also stated that food and grocery player Bundl Technologies Pvt Ltd, better known by its moniker Swiggy, is anticipated to begin delivering grocery items in Bengaluru shortly.

"We are entering the African market. We have signed an agreement with a distributor there to source about 4,000 drones. We have also received signed confirmation orders now of over 8,000 drones from countries like Malaysia, Panama and UAE," Agnishwar Jayaprakash, Founder & CEO said.
