

The central government would offer incentives of Rs 120 crore over the following three years to drone makers and drone component manufacturers under the production-linked incentive (PLI) scheme.

General (Retd) VK Singh, Minister of State for Civil Aviation, stated in a written response to a question during the current Rajya Sabha session that the government is providing a total incentive of Rs 120 crore over three financial years beginning in 2021-2022, and that the incentive for 2021-2022 will be paid in 2022-2023, following review of the financial results of the beneficiaries.

For the purpose of allocating the grant, the centre has created a preliminary list of 23 PLI grantees, comprising 12 drone manufacturers and 11 drone component makers.
