Greaves Electric Mobility Pvt Ltd said it has entered into a partnership with Mesha Energy Solutions Pvt Ltd to improve battery technology for its products across the portfolio.

Through the partnership with Mesha Energy Solutions, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mesha, Inc. based in the USA, the company will be able to provide faster charging and better driving experience to its electric vehicle (EV) customers, Greaves Electric Mobility said in a statement.

The patented solutions of Mesha Energy Solutions deliver faster charging and longer life cycle of batteries while an integrated charge balancer ensures that batteries are charged and operate under optimal conditions, it added.
