

RCC-ACC, a Gurgaon-based business, has been awarded the contract to develop Mormugao Port's international and domestic cruise terminal, which would cost Rs 72.1 crore.

On March 15, the Cochin Port Authority (CPA), which has been tasked with monitoring the development, issued a work order to RCC-ACC.

The CPA has also ordered the business to pay a performance security of 3% of the project cost, or Rs 2.2 crore, for the project. The engineering, procurement, and construction (EPC) contract will be handled by RCC-ACC.

Feedback Infra Private Limited developed the technoeconomic feasibility assessment, while Team One India created the architectural cum engineering design for the terminal and other facilities.
