

Border Roads Organisation (BRO) has built 24 bridges and three roads, including one at a height of over 19,000 feet in Ladakh, across four states and two union territories to guarantee quick movement of soldiers at the China-Pakistan border.

These 24 bridges and three roads were virtually launched by Defence Minister Rajnath Singh from Delhi.

Jammu and Kashmir has nine bridges, Ladakh and Himachal Pradesh each has five, Uttarakhand has three, while Sikkim and Arunachal Pradesh each have one. Two of the three roads are in Ladakh, while the third is in West Bengal.
