

A number of business executives met with chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan at his mansion to discuss their proposed investments in the state.

Assuring the investors of complete cooperation in accordance with state government policies, Chouhan informed them that Madhya Pradesh has developed into an attractive state for investments.

Following the meeting and discussion with the investors on Monday, it was decided how to expedite the process of opening a unit for the production of fertilisers from rock phosphate in the state.

As many as 5,350 people would be employed, and Rs 7,775 crore will be invested in the state, according to a spokeswoman for the government.
