

Decks have been cleared for a sizable textile machinery manufacturing facility along the Yamuna Expressway length in Gautam Budh Nagar, giving UP's vision of becoming a centre for textile production a boost.

During the road show for the UP Global Investor Summit that was held in Tokyo, the state government and Japan India Industry Promotion Association struck an agreement in this respect.

Led by cabinet ministers for tourism development Jaiveer Singh and Ashish Patel and includes senior MSME department officials as well as the chief executive officer of the Yamuna Expressway Industrial Development Authority.
