

A 100-bed multispecialty hospital will be built at Jindal Nagar in the Angul district of Odisha by JSP Foundation, the company's charitable arm.

In the presence of the Angul Municipality Chairman Akshaya Kumar Samant and the local Chhendipada MLA Susanta Kumar Behera, JSP Chairman Naveen Jindal and JSP Foundation Chair Shallu Jindal performed the Bhoomi Pujan and placed the foundation stone for the Jindal Aarogyam Hospital.

"Building ultra-modern hospitals and quality schools for the community is embedded in JSP's mission of improving the Human Development Index. With the establishment of Jindal Aarogyam Hospital with several specialties, this dream of ours will soon be a big reality," he said.

Shallu Jindal said the medical treatment in the proposed hospital will be provided at a very affordable cost.
