

Kilitch Drugs India Limited has bought a 15-acre plot of land in Village Maldev, Taluka: Pen, on the Pen-Khopoli Highway to build a greenfield pharmaceutical facility.

Kilitch has been a leading maker of injectables for more than three decades. The moment has come to join the ranks of Biotech goods in order to accelerate growth.

To meet the expanding demand domestically and internationally, the business expects to develop up 4-6 production facilities in several therapeutic areas.

All of these production facilities will be constructed in accordance with our potential for expansion in the export market. The proposed project is futuristic and will receive the highest level of approval from the world's main regulatory bodies.
