

Krisumi Corporation has partnered with Savills India, a global real estate brokerage firm, to attract customers from other countries for its project, Krisumi Waterfall Residences in Gurgaon.

Krisumi Corporation is a joint venture between India's Krishna Group – an automotive giant and Japanese conglomerate, Sumitomo Corporation.

The company is aiming to woo customers from important markets such as the United Kingdom, Europe, Southeast Asia, and the Middle East.

According to Chairman of Krisumi Corporation & Krishna Group, Ashok Kapur, “The company is excited to partner with Savills India in its journey to re-imagine the Indian realty landscape through professionalism and a superior customer experience. With a premium residential offering in a ticket size more palatable to everyone, the company is reimagining the paradigm of luxury that has been traditionally associated with ticket size or pricing attributes.”
