

Larsen & Toubro (L&T) said that its construction arm has received large orders in India for its various businesses.

“L&T’s construction arm has received orders for its Indian operations,” the company announced in a statement.

NMDC Ltd has placed an engineering, procurement, and construction order with the company’s metallurgical and material handling (MMH) division.

“L&T has been awarded an engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) order for 12 MTPA (million tonnes per annum) dry circuit systems on a turnkey basis for a screening plant (SP-III) from NMDC Ltd at their Kirandul Complex, Chhattisgarh,” the statement said.
