

LARSEN & TOUBRO

Larsen & Toubro (L&T) announced that an international client has awarded two offshore packages to a consortium managed by L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering (LTHE), a wholly owned subsidiary of the business.

EPC for new facilities and integration with existing installations are included in the scope of work.

LTHE is working on a number of domestic and international offshore projects right now. LTHE delivers integrated design-to-build solutions across the hydrocarbon sector to local and international customers, organised under the Offshore, Onshore, Construction Services, Modular Fabrication, and Advanced Value Engineering and Technology (AdVENT) sectors.
