

The Dedicated Freight Corridor Corporation of India Limited (DFCCIL) would build a multimodal logistics park for cargo handling in Kanpur, providing a significant economic boost to the region.

Although the first to be created by DFCCIL, this would be the state of Uttar Pradesh's fourth such major logistical hub.

RDSO, director, operations and business development, DFCCIL, NanduriSrinivas said, "In two years UP will have a multimodal logistics park, 20 km from Kanpur city near Rooma railway station. DFCCIL has procured 70-hectare land in Hathipur, Maharajpur and Tilsahribujurg villages in Narval tehsil of Kanpur Nagar."
