

Mishtann Foods signs MoU with Gujarat government to set up grain based ethanol plant | 1

Mishtann Foods (MFL) has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Gujarat government to build India's largest grain-based ethanol facility, with a capacity of 1000 KLPD.

The project is planned to cost Rs 2250 crore, provide employment to 5000+ people directly or indirectly, and produce an annual revenue of around Rs 3500 crore.

MFL has taken the necessary steps to move the project forward as quickly as possible, with the goal of starting the grain-based ethanol plant in the second quarter of 2024.
