

A 1,000 Kilolitres Per Day (KLPD) facility for the production of grain-based ethanol has been announced by Mishtann Food Limited for Gujarat.

In the upcoming quarters, it is anticipated that the company's recent investments, the introduction of new goods, and its order book would significantly enhance its financials. Mishtann Foods Ltd., a BSE-listed company that produces and markets a wide range of rice, pulses, and other culinary goods, plans to establish its manufacturing plant in Dalpur village of Gujarat's Sabarkantha district.

In order to establish India's largest grain-based ethanol production, with a capacity of 1000 KLPD, in Gujarat, Mishtann Foods and the Gujarati government have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).
