

Prime Minister Narendra Modi inaugurated the Donyi Polo Airport at Itanagar in Arunachal Pradesh.

Brigadier (Dr) BD Mishra (Retd.) is the governor of Arunachal Pradesh. Pema Khandu, the state's chief minister, Kiren Rijiju, the deputy chief minister of Arunachal Pradesh, Chowna Mein, and MP Nabam Rebia were also present.

Union Minister Kiren Rijiju in his welcome address said, "Opening of this airport will be a significant step towards boosting connectivity in Arunachal Pradesh. The dream of having an airport in the capital city of the state is coming true today."

Chief Minister Khandu said, "Today is a historic day for the entire state. This airport will not enhance the connectivity but will also provide momentum to the economic development of this region."
