

The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways of the Indian government has issued tenders for road work in Maharashtra.

The project's scope includes reconstructing and upgrading the Jamkhed to Sautada stretch of NH-548D from design ch 195.375 km to design ch 208.774 km to a two-lane with paved shoulder four-lane configuration on an EPC basis for Rs 136.05 crore.

The project also includes the repair and upgrade of the Kopargaon to Savali Vihir stretch of NH-752G from design ch 353.000 km to ch 362.663 km to four lane with paved shoulder configuration on an EPC basis, costing Rs 178.77 crore. The construction will take 18 months to complete.

Site Moved. Visit our New Website

We have moved this news site from this URL to <https://www.newprojectstracker.com/capex-news> .

Visit this site for regular updates

Buy Latest Research Reports