

Ritesh Properties and Industries Ltd. and Narayana Hrudayalaya Ltd. have partnered to build NHL's first state-of-the-art multi-specialty hospital in the state of Punjab in Ludhiana.

The hospital will be built as part of the Hampton project on NH-05 (Ludhiana-Chandigarh Highway). The facility, which will be spread over 2 lakh square feet and have a capacity of 225 beds, would deliver world-class healthcare and diagnostic facilities to the people of Punjab.

Sanjeev Arora, Managing Director, Ritesh Properties and Industries Ltd. (RPIL) and Commander Navneet Bali, Director - Northern Region, Narayana Hrudayalaya from Narayana Hrudayalaya signed the agreement today in Delhi/ NCR, paving the way for the project's implementation.

The hospital is expected to open in 2024.
