

NLC India has announced that it has begun supplying coal to NTPC's power plant in Darlipali, Odisha, from its Talabira project in the eastern state.

The discovery is significant in light of the fact that several power plants in the country are experiencing coal shortages.

"Adding to the coal stock of NTPC, lignite company @nlcindialimited's Talabira Project has commenced supplies to NTPC Darlipali. Moreover, dispatch to NTPC Lara is also expected to commence soon," NLC tweeted
