

To attract investment of Rs 6,994 crore, Rajasthan Chief Minister Asok Gehlot authorised customised packages for five projects. The approval was issued during the Board of Investment's meeting to examine Rajasthan.

5 415 workers will have job opportunities because to these developments. Gehlot said that over the past four years, the Congress government has introduced a number of significant policies and programmes, including the Rajasthan Investment Promotion Scheme (RIPS), the MSME Policy, and others, to encourage investment in the state.

In the Chief Minister's house, the Board of Investment had its fourth meeting, during which the plans were approved. The state government will establish new industrial facilities in the state, according to CM Gehlot.
