

Royal Orchid Hotels to add 25 new hotels to its chain by the end of next year | 1

Royal Orchid Hotels chairman and managing director Chander K Baljee said that the firm plans to expand its present chain of 75 hotels by at least 25 more properties. The corporation currently oversees a variety of managed, franchised, and owned assets. Following the Covid pause, business for the company has increased as a result of customer demand for shorter breaks, improved transit connections between smaller towns, and the wedding season, according to Baljee.

“Since March 2022, the business has been booming, which is evident from our Q1 results,” said the MD.
