

After winning a 75 megawatt (MW) solar project in Jalaun, state-owned power producer SJVN urged the Uttar Pradesh government to award the business other renewable energy projects in the state.

A company statement said, "A K Singh, director (finance), met Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh Yogi Adityanath (on Wednesday) and briefed him about the progress being made in the allotted 75-MW solar project in Parasan Solar Park located at Jalaun."

Singh told the chief minister that SJVN has awarded the engineering, procurement, and construction of the project to Solarworld Energy Solutions Private Limited, it added.
