The cutting-edge production plant for shrimp and fish feed was officially opened in Mangrol, Surat, by Skretting, a global leader in aqua feed and nutrition with headquarters in Norway. The newly constructed high-end facility enables Nutreco, a part of the Dutch company that leads the industry in animal and aquatic nutrition, to better support its clients and the aquaculture industry in India. The Dutch multinational SHV Holdings N.V., which is family-owned, owns Nutreco. With 125 years of experience and a focus on innovation, Skretting has held the top position in salmon and shrimp globally. As of right now, it employs manufacturing footprints in 18 nations and generates three million MT of feed yearly for more than 60 species from hatch to harvest.
