

In Gurugram, SRL Diagnostics has opened a brand-new, enhanced state-of-the-art laboratory. For all of its reference labs in North India and East India, the new reference laboratory will act as the nodal lab.

Professor Dr. Ashok Seth, a Padmashri and Padmanbhushan Awardee, Dr. Narottam Puri, and Dr. Ashutosh Raghuvanshi were present for the facility's inauguration.

The laboratory is set up to carry out high-volume diagnostic testing services that improve productivity, provide improved diagnostic accuracy, and boost capacity to satisfy present and future regional demands.

The SRL lab in Gurugram serves as a Center of Excellence for transplant immunology and human leukocyte antigen (HLA) testing.
