

Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath's road shows in major cities of several states continue to bring in significant investments for the state.

In Hyderabad, the capital of Telangana Team Yogi held a roadshow during which 19 investors signed MoUs totaling Rs 25,000 crore. More than 32,000 new jobs will be directly or indirectly created in the state as a result of these MoUs.

Many other investors also expressed a wish to contribute thousands of crore at the same time. These investors will complete their investment by attending the UP Global Investors Summit, which will take place in February in Lucknow, the state's capital.

The roadshow in Hyderabad was led by Deputy CM Brajesh Pathak, while he was accompanied by a team of UP officials including Cabinet Minister Baby Rani Maurya, Ministers of State Arun Kumar Saxena, Dayashankar Mishra and Advisor to Chief Minister GN Singh.
