

TTD-funded Srinivasa Setu elevated expressway project to be inaugurated this month | 1

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister YS Jaganmohan Reddy will dedicate the Srinivasa Setu elevated highway project in Tirupati this month.

The Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams and the Tirupati Smart City Corporation Limited, in a 67 percent-33 percent ratio, are funding the project, which is estimated to cost Rs.684 crore. The elevated highway corridor, which connects the city from various sides, is designed to provide a hassle-free route for Tirumala-bound devotees while also reducing traffic congestion for local people.
