

A top official announced that the TVS Industrial and Logistics Park (ILP) has plans to expand its footprint in 30 more locations by 2027.

There are now 11 places where the company is present nationwide.

According to chief operating officer R Manikandan, the TVS ILP will invest roughly Rs 1,500 crore as part of its expansion strategy.

He stated that five of the warehouses would be in Tamil Nadu, including one in Coimbatore, as part of his expansion plans.

In addition to others, the organisation was working on projects in Vijayawada, Vishakapatnam, Guwahati, Siliguri, Ranchi, and Raipur.

According to him, there will be a warehouse option available every 400 kilometres across the nation.
