

Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray laid the foundation stone for a medical college and hospital in Aligab, Raigad district.

In Usar Village, a 100-seat college and a 500-bed hospital would be built at a cost of Rs 450 crore.

The medical college, which has 76 students, has been operating from a makeshift campus on RCF land since this year.

Thackeray announced the establishment of a Trauma Care Centre in Wadkhal and stated that his government was dedicated to upgrading the state's health infrastructure.

Site Moved. Visit our New Website

We have moved this news site from this URL to <https://www.newprojectstracker.com/capex-news> .

Visit this site for regular updates

Buy Latest Research Reports