

The Uttar Pradesh government has approved Rs 486 crore for the acquisition of land and construction of a 30-kilometer road connecting the Noida airport to the Delhi-Mumbai Expressway in Ballabhgarh, Haryana.

Only roughly 8.5 kilometres of the 30 kilometre route is in Uttar Pradesh, with the remainder in Haryana.

The Uttar Pradesh government has approved funds to purchase around 90 acres of land for a road that runs across the state, create an interchange near the Yamuna Expressway, and cover half of the cost of construction.

The expense of the road in Haryana would be borne by the Centre.
