

The Uttar Pradesh government and the Government of India signed an MoU at LokBhawan in Lucknow for the creation of 1,000-acre-wide textile parks in the Hardoi and Lucknow districts as part of the PM Mega Integrated Textiles and Apparel (PM Mitra) initiative.

Expressing gratitude to the Prime Minister for choosing UP under the centre's ambitious PM Mega Integrated Textiles and Apparel (PM Mitra) scheme, Yogi said, "This move is a step towards re-establishing the UP's ancient glory and towards making the state the 'new textile hub' of the country."

"As a result of the efforts in the last 6 years, the state received investment proposals worth over Rs 35 lakh crore and Team UP is moving forward with these programs in a time-bound manner to bring an investment of up to Rs 10 lakh crore on the ground," he said.

Slamming previous governments for making UP infamous because of poor law and order situation, Yogi Adityanath said, "Prior to 2017, UP was known for riots and crime. Today, all districts in UP are witnessing growth and darkness in every way has been eliminated. The government is paving way for UP's development through airports, highways, and proper law and order situation."
