

The goal of Zen Mobility, also known as Zero Emission New Mobility, an up-and-coming OEM for electric vehicles, is to create aspirational designs and engineering breakthroughs for electric vehicles.

A multipurpose four-wheel LEV dubbed the “Zen Maxi Pod” and a specifically designed freight three-wheel LEV named the “Zen Micro Pod” are among the initial set of mobility options the company has announced. The Zen Micro Pod ARAI Certificate of Conformity was most recently awarded to the business.

The Zen Micro Pod and Maxi Pod were created utilising best-in-class design and technology to meet the demands of contemporary mobility and logistics. They provide improved comfort, convenience, optimised range, and lower cost of ownership.
